

Here
By Larissa Lam

Verse 1

I thought I told you once
In fact I told you twice
Whatcha did, whatcha did, whatcha did would hurt so bad
You should have said goodbye
You let the lie slip by
Yes you did and you did and you did nothin' 'bout that

Chorus:

I couldn't force you to be
Completely lovin' toward me
I was patiently waitin' for you to come
I knew just what you needed
A choice to leave or seek me
But when it's said and done
I'll be here
I'm always here

Verse 2

I had to let you go
Each time you told me no
Even though even though even though it made me so sad
Regret would find a way
And make you feel betrayed
But you said, but you said, but you said it wouldn't turn out like that
