

Everlasting Arms by Larissa Lam

Around me I can feel
Your everlasting arms
Surrounding me with Your love
Embracing me
At night before I lay to sleep
Every morning when I rise
Your sweet countenance I see
Radiating over me
That I recognize

Around me I can feel
Your everlasting arms
Surrounding me with Your love
Embracing me

Like the sunlight breaking through
After the clouds darkened the skies
Every part of me consumed
By the endless warmth from You
And more I realize

Around me I can feel
Your everlasting arms

(Interlude)

Around me I can feel
Your everlasting arms
Surrounding me with Your love
Embracing me

Though my body may be weak
The strength Your Spirit constantly supplies
Discourages defeat
No more fears will conquer me
Even when I close my eyes
In Your everlasting arms
