

Say A Prayer by Larissa Lam

Verse 1:

Say a prayer for the young and foolish
For the ones who are blind to His light
For the ones who ignore His way of living
Who doubt Him but believe in their own right
Their own right

Chorus:

Say a Prayer for the lonely
A Prayer for the hurting
A Prayer for their redemption to begin
Say a prayer for redemption to begin

Verse 2:

Say a prayer for the damned and hopeless
They're the ones who need to hear God's name
For the ones who know nothing of forgiveness
For they identify with only blame
Only blame

Chorus

Bridge:

Say a prayer, say a prayer, say a prayer with me
Say a prayer, say a prayer, down on your knees
If you're looking for someone to believe in, say a prayer
Say a prayer

Chorus
