

This Road
by Larissa Lam

I---

I see your trail
And start out on my quest
Where others have failed
No matter the weather
Regardless of time
Down through each valley
Up every climb

CHORUS:

This Road may be long
And though it is narrow
Wherever You go
I will follow

If I'm to love You
If I'm to reach my goal
I know I must stay on
This Road, This Road

The rest of the world
Flows against me
Steered by their own pride
Too blind to see
Calling me foolish
In what I pursue
I'll take on any cost
Than live without You

CHORUS

Bridge
If somehow, it leads to the sea
I will dive in so confidently
If somehow it takes me to the sky
I will learn, I'll learn how to fly

CHORUS