

Universe

By Larissa Lam

Ever count the stars at night
Lighting up the sky so clear
And have your eye on one, watch it slowly burn, quickly disappear
Love, faithfulness, trust, devotion,
I never thought that I would ever find
Someone who understands my every notion

CHORUS: No one loves me, no one loves me
Loves me like You do
No one in the universe

Far beyond what we can see
Is there something to explore
Across all space and time, never satisfied, always wanting more
Peace, harmony, Joy, contentment
After all this time, I think that I've
Opened up my eyes to heaven

CHORUS

No one else moves my heart like You can
No one but a gracious God would take me as I am
